OIL MEN OF ST. LOUIS GET VICTIMS HERE

M. G. Temple of Cape Has Warrant Issued Against
W. C. Uphoff, an Officer of the Oil Company.

An information for obtaining money under false pretenses will be issued against William C. Uphoff, formerly connected with the International Oil Co., St. Louis, at the instance of M. G. Temple, a local plumber. Temple applied for the information before Prosecuting Attorney Caruthers yesterday, stating that Uphoff had given him two checks drawn on the German Savings Institution at St. Louis. The checks were returned to Temple marked insufficient funds. The total amount was $35.

Uphoff, who is also wanted in St. Louis on several charges, came to the Cape last year in an effort to sell some stock in an oil company, which had been organized shortly before he arrived. During his stay in the Cape he had Temple endorse the checks which were cashed by a hotel owner of the Cape. They were rejected by the bank and Temple had to refund the money.

Charles Blattner is said to have cashed a check for $100 for Uphoff while he was in the Cape. This check was also returned by the bank on account of insufficient funds. Both Temple and Blattner had previously cashed checks for Uphoff, but these were honored by the bank, and for that reason they had not reason to distrust the man.

Bryan G. Pratt, who was recently pardoned by ex-Governor Major after he had been sentenced to two years in the State Penitentiary for bigamy, was the president of the oil concern for only a short time. He was ousted after the charge of bigamy had been preferred against him. Cape Girardeau Tribune.

It will be remembered this is the same company coming into Hayti to bore for oil, and did

Banqueted Employees

Will Pyles, manager of the Arkansas Grocer Co., tendered the employees of his wholesale grocery business a banquet at the Hotel Glencoe Wednesday night. There were an even dozen present without Mr. Pyles, but as he nor Host Fairfield were superstitious on the 13 question, that number of covers were laid.

The menu was all that anyone, even wholesale grocers, who know what good things are, could wish, including all the substantial and delicacies provided in this splendid market.

Mr. Pyles said there was no occasion, just the annual banquet where he and his working force get together, eat, talk, tell stories and recount the success of the business of the past year, which has been one of the best in the history of the company. Blytheville (Ark.) Courier.

Local manager, J. V. Oates, and his able assistants, of this city, were in attendance at the above banquet. They inform the Herald a most enjoyable evening was spent, and one of which they appreciated.

Owen Walton, a young farmer of the Dowd Gayoso neighborhood, was in Hayti Monday afternoon, and now he is a regular full-fledged reader of the Herald. He is farming on the Shackelford farm.

lease several thousand acres of fine farm land, and went so far as to have several pieces of heavy timbers placed preparatory for real work.

They also made some pretense of selling stock in Hayti, and did victimize three or four parties of this city. However, the majority of our people only treated the oil proposition coldly, not thinking so very much of it.

GOOD NEWS CLIPPED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Harry Gettings Elected Captain—Arkansas "Dry Bone" Law is Tested—Contracts Completed at Netherlands.

Cape Republican: At a meeting of the members of the Normal basketball team Monday afternoon Harry Gettings was chosen captain for this year. It is the custom to choose a captain the preceding year, but last year all the players expected to be out of school this year so it was agreed that a captain should be chosen just after the two games with Carbondale Normal. * * * Dennis Slow, a carpenter who has been working for Charles Nenninger at Netherlands, in the far south end of Pemiscot County, returned to Cape Friday morning after absence of six weeks. Mr. Nanninger has completed his contracts in Netherlands.

Kennett News: R. C. Walker, who is associated with his father, Col. C. N. Walker, in the publication of the Piggott (Ark.) Critic, a live newspaper, accompanied by L. C. White, also of Piggott, was in Kennett a few hours between trains last Friday. They were going to Hayti to visit friends. The News acknowledges a pleasant call. * * * Miss Audrey Berry, a teacher in the Hayti public school, and Miss Hattie May Argo, also of that city, visited Miss Sybil Shirley from Friday to Monday. * * * Miss Hattie Lansdell, of the sales force of The Kohn Store, is taking a two or three weeks' vacation.

Blytheville (Ark.) Herald-News: The Bone Dry law of Arkansas became a reality here early last when the local agent for the Wells-Fargo Express Co. shipped twenty packages of "Blood Purifier" and "Cramp Discourager" back to dealers in Memphis and Caruthersville. * * * Bill Simpson of Hayti, Mo., was in Blytheville a few days this week attending business.

DRAINAGE ENGINEER WEDS A PRETTY MISS

Blair Boyle, Resident Engineer for Little River Drainage District Weds Miss Ethel Hamilton.

No doubt this issue of the Herald will surprise the many friends of a young couple of this city, who were married at the Presbyterian Church in Caruthersville at ten o'clock, Tuesday morning, by the Rev. V. T. Browning, the local pastor, the participants being Blair Boyle and Miss Ethel Hamilton of this city.

Miss Hamilton, the bride, is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hamilton, of this city, and who are well known. She is one who has an extraordinary sweet and kind disposition, being an accomplished young lady, and who was a favorite among those who knew her. Her friends are numbered by her acquaintances, and they are by no means limited. In this young lady Mr. Boyle will find a true helpmate.

Mr. Boyle was born in Kokomo, Ind., and came here about two years ago as an engineer in the employ of the Little River Drainage District, who have a residency in this city, he holding quite a responsible position. He is the only son of Mrs. Mary L.

Some Herald Boosters.

Since our last issue we have received the renewal of several of the Herald subscribers, and almost all of them in doing so give us many kind words of appreciation, and hoping us luck. H. V. Litzelfelner, Chas. R. Pierce, J. W. Green, Miss Margaret Tinsley, C. E. Bragg, Andy Shaw, E. C. Masdon, Cunningham Store Co., Hazel Brothers and E. S. Huffman, Caruthersville. Owen Walton, Hayti, a new one.

Mrs. Beach Dunklin of Caruthersville was here several days this week visiting Mrs. J. L. Dorris, Sr.

Boyle, who came here some time after her son arrived, and has been the housekeeper for him. He is widely and favorably known, and has a sound, business judgment and is considered a conservative business man.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. Boyle telephoned his mother of the event, and informed her that they were taking the noon train for St. Louis, and would spend a few days in the city. We are informed they will be at home to their friends, in this city, after Sunday.

The Herald wishes to join their many friends in extending congratulations, and wishing them a happy and prosperous journey.

CONTRACTS LET FOR BUILDINGS AT MELSON

Three Store Rooms, Big Hotel and Fifteen Residences to be Erected in New Town. Also Switches at Depot.

Bragg & McKay, Monday, awarded the contract to T. E. Hyatt for the erection of three brick store buildings on the new town site of Melson (commonly known as Clay Root). These buildings are to be a duplicate of the Spence building on First Street in Kennett, with the exception that red brick instead of buff will be used for the front. The block will be 75x75 feet and the contract price $6,000.00.

Orville E. Campbell got the contract for the erection of fifteen dwelling houses the company is to have built there. These are to be four 5 room houses, six 4 room and five 3-room.

A large brick hotel is also to be built, but so far as we can learn, the contract for that has not been let, but will be in a few days, it is understood plans are being prepared.

Forty acres have been laid off for the town site.

The Frisco railroad officials have already had a surveyor laying off for tracks siding, switching, etc., and a site for a good depot which they have agreed to
